You will be hosted by a constituent from your legislative district.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to meet with Extension and OARDC volunteers from back home, along with some of our nation's leading scientists and educators. This luncheon is held in appreciation of the General Assembly's ongoing support of extension and research programs.

We sincerely hope that you will be able to join us.

Todd Michael
CHAIR, OARDC SUPPORT COUNCIL

Jim Rogers
CHAIR, STATE EXTENSION ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The OARDC Support Council and State Extension Advisory Committee consist of corporations, individuals, and associations throughout the state with the common goal of advocating and promoting research and extension programs that directly affect Ohio's economy, environment, and the social well-being of its citizens.

A volunteer from your district will be in contact with your office to host you and your staff at this informal luncheon.

OARDC is a premier institution committed to safe, healthy, and affordable food and agricultural products; stewardship of natural resources and the environment; and keeping Ohio positioned favorably in a global economy. We are the intersection for superior, diverse, unbiased research. Housed within The Ohio State University, OARDC is the largest university agbioscience research center in the nation.

Ohio State University Extension is a part of The Ohio State University located in each of Ohio's 88 counties. Extension works with young children and the aged, farmers and business owners, community leaders and elected officials to build better lives, better businesses, and better communities to make Ohio great. OSU Extension delivers targeted, relevant, research-backed information and programs to meet the needs of Ohioans at a local level as well as addressing emerging issues.
