

ESSAYS: Please respond below to two of the following questions. Please limit your essays to a total of one page maximum.

1. Describe why you would like to be a College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences ambassador.
2. What ideas do you have to improve current student involvement in prospective student recruitment?
3. What unique characteristics can you bring to the ambassador team?

Applications are due in Ag. Admin. Room 100 or may be e-mailed to koren.10@osu.edu by 5:00 Wednesday, February 26. Applicants will be notified if they have been chosen for an interview the following week. Interviews will be scheduled for the week of March 10 by signing up for a 15- minute time slot at the front desk in Ag. Admin. 100 after March 3. The interviewers will be graduating ambassadors, faculty and administrators.

At the beginning of their interview the applicant will give a 3-5 minute presentation. The presentation should carry the theme of a recruitment message for high school students and should include an introduction of the applicant. PowerPoint projection will not be available.

Who are the CFAES Ambassadors and what do they do?

The CFAES Ambassadors are a team of students that represent the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences for recruitment and industry relations purposes. The team size ranges from 15 to 20 current students that have been selected through an application and interview process. Ambassadors are trained to provide tours of the CFAES campus and they enhance recruitment initiatives with the “student touch”. Two new goals of the CFAES Ambassador Team is to help the general University student body become more aware of CFAES and to be more involved in industry relations on behalf of CFAES students. Various training will take place spring quarter and a retreat will be held over the summer.

Questions should be directed to Kelly Koren at 688-4144 or via e-mail at koren.10@osu.edu.

Minimum CGPA of 2.5/4.0 is required for the team.
